1. Definitions

In these regulations, any word or expression to which a meaning has been assigned to it in the Rental Housing Act, 1999 (Act No. 50 of 1999) shall have the meaning so assigned to it and, unless the context indicates otherwise –

“complainant” means a person or persons who lodges a complaint with the Tribunal;

“mediation” means a voluntary process in terms of which parties are to resolve a dispute;

“party” means a person who is participating in a mediation or a hearing;

“register” means the register contemplated by section 13 (8) of the Act;

“respondent” means a person against whom a complaint has been lodged with the Tribunal;

“the Act” means the Rental Housing Act, 1999 (Act 50 of 1999);

“Tribunal” means the Rental Housing Tribunal established in terms of section 7 of the Act;

“unfair practice regulations” means the unfair practice regulations made under section 15 (1)(f) of the Act.

2. Lodging of complaints

(1) Any tenant or landlord or group of tenants or group of landlords or other interest group may lodge a written complaint with the Tribunal concerning an alleged unfair practice as contemplated in the Act or as prescribed in terms of the Unfair Practices Regulations.

(2) If the complaint is lodged in a representative capacity, except if the representative is a practicing attorney, a letter or a petition signed by the complainant(s) authorising the representative to lodge a complaint, must be furnished to the Tribunal.

- (3) A complaint lodged with the Tribunal must be in writing and must be in the prescribed form appearing in (Annexure A) to these regulations and may –
- (a) be sent by registered mail or facsimile transmission to the office of the Tribunal;
 - (b) confirmation of a successful transmission of the facsimile will be proof of receipt of the complaint, or
 - (c) be delivered in person to the office of the Tribunal or at the relevant Rental Housing Information Office within the jurisdiction of the local authority in which the dwelling is situated.

3. Tribunal's responsibilities on receipt of complaint

- (1) The following steps must be taken in respect of any complaint received by the Tribunal:
- (a) A file must be opened and a reference number must be allocated to the complaint;
 - (b) file cover will reflect the name of the Tribunal, reference number of the case and names of the parties;
 - (c) The particulars of the dwelling to which the complaint refers must be listed in the register referred to in section 13 (8) of the Act;
 - (d) The complainant must be provided with an acknowledgement of receipt of the complaint which contains the reference number of the case;
 - (e) The Tribunal must conduct such preliminary investigations as may be necessary to determine whether the complaint relates to a dispute in respect of a matter which may constitute an unfair practice, and for this purpose any additional information required to provide a full and complete description of the matter may be obtained from either the complainant or the respondent;

- (f) If the Tribunal considers it necessary, it may instruct an inspector to first inspect the property and compile a report on the complaint;
- (g) The Tribunal must within 30 days of the receipt of the complaint, determine, as contemplated by section 13(2) (b) of the Act, whether the complaint relates to a dispute in respect of a matter which may constitute an unfair practice;
- (h) The determination contemplated by paragraph (g) must be recorded in the file referred to in paragraph (a).

4. Jurisdiction

- (1) If a complaint is not within the jurisdiction of the Tribunal, as determined by the Tribunal, the Tribunal must-
 - (a) notify the complainant in writing within thirty (30) days of the receipt of the complaint that the Tribunal cannot act on the matter;
 - (b) advise the complainant that he or she may within thirty (30) days of the date of such notification make a request for the Tribunal to review the decision on jurisdiction;
 - (c) re-consider its decision on jurisdiction as soon as possible after receipt of a request contemplated in (b) and notify the complainant in writing of the outcome thereof, and
 - (d) where possible be given a referral to the appropriate forum within thirty (30) days of the receipt of the complaint

5. Requirements if no dispute exists

- (1) If the Tribunal determines that the complaint does not relate to a dispute in respect of a matter which may constitute an unfair practice, the Tribunal must –
 - (a) notify the complainant in writing of its decision;

- (b) if possible, furnish the complainant with an appropriate institution to which the matter should be referred, and
- (c) record that the matter has been disposed of and close the relevant file.

6. Procedure on determination that dispute exists

- (1) If the Tribunal has determined that a complaint does relate to a dispute in respect of a matter which may constitute an unfair practice, the Tribunal must –
 - (a) further determine, whether in its view, the dispute may be resolved by mediation or a hearing;
 - (b) call for further determination as contemplated by paragraph (a) to be recorded in the relevant file;
 - (c) if it has determined that the dispute may be resolved by mediation, appoint a mediator in terms of section 13 (2)(c) of the Act with a view to resolving the dispute, and in writing inform the parties to the dispute of the particulars of mediation (Annexure B);
 - (d) if it has determined that the dispute is of such a nature that it cannot be resolved by mediation, arrange for a formal hearing of the complaint, and, in writing, inform the parties of the particulars of the hearing; and
 - (e) If it has determined that a complaint does relate to a dispute in respect of a matter which may constitute an unfair practice, it will notify the respondent in writing, providing him or her the opportunity to examine the file and, if necessary, to provide the Tribunal with a written response thereto and / or lodge a counter claim within 21 days of receipt of the Tribunal's notification.
- (2) A complainant may withdraw his or her complaint in writing to the Tribunal within five days before the date of the mediation or hearing.

7. Mediation: Process and Procedure

(1) If the Tribunal has appointed a mediator to resolve a dispute, the Tribunal must-

(a) in writing inform the parties of the (Annexure B): -

- (i) nature of the dispute;
- (ii) particulars of the parties;
- (iii) relevant information of mediation;
- (iv) the date mediation is to be conducted;

(b) at least 10 days before the date of the mediation, a Notice of Mediation (Annexure B) be served on the complainant and respondent :-

- (i) by handing a true copy thereof to the named person personally; or
- (ii) by leaving such copy thereof at the place of residence or business of the said person with any person apparently in charge of the premises at the time of delivery, being a person apparently above the age of 18 years and apparently in authority over him or her; or
- (iii) by delivering such copy thereof at the place of employment of the said named person to some person apparently above the age of 18 years and apparently in authority over him or her; or
- (iv) in the case of a corporation, company or other body corporate or juristic person, by delivering such copy thereof to a responsible employee thereof at its registered or head office, or in the case of its principal place of business, within the jurisdiction of the Tribunal, or where there is no such employee willing to accept service, by affixing a copy to the main door of such office or place of business; or
- (v) where any partnership, firm or voluntary association is to be served service must be effected in the manner referred to in paragraph (iv) at the place of business of such partnership, firm or voluntary association;

- (c) ensure that a mediation is conducted in a language that all the parties concerned can comprehend and, for this purpose, the Tribunal must, if necessary, provide the services of a qualified interpreter.
 - (d) if the parties are unable to reach agreement, the mediator will issue a certificate as contemplated by section 13(2)(d) of the Act (Annexure C);
 - (e) if a party fails or refuses to attend mediation, after being duly notified, the mediator shall refer the matter to the Tribunal for a decision by completing the mediation certificate (Annexure C).
 - (f) If the mediation results in an agreement or is partly successful, the mediator will record the outcome in the mediation certificate (Annexure C).
- (2) The mediation process must be conducted as follows:
- (a) The mediator shall be impartial; must explain the mediation process, help and guide parties to arrive at a mutually acceptable solution;
 - (b) The mediator must explicitly discuss the issue of confidentiality with the parties prior to the commencement of any mediation. If a party requests that information be kept confidential either during the course of the mediation or afterwards, and the other parties agree to mediate under those terms, the explicit provisions of the confidentiality agreement must be made part of the mediation agreement (Annexure C);
 - (c) The mediator must at the outset inform the parties that the mediator acts only as a facilitator in trying to resolve the dispute between them, and that the final decision must be the decision of the parties and not that of the mediator.
 - (d) Parties do not take an oath or make affirmation because they do not give evidence.
 - (e) The mediator must also inform the parties involved that the mediation process will be conducted as follows:

- (i) Each party will be given an opportunity to present its case.
 - (ii) Each party may at any stage of the proceedings request a recess in order to caucus in another room or office.
 - (iii) If the other party does not have any objection thereto, then the mediator may attend the caucus meeting and make suggestions and proposals at the invitation of a party seeking the mediator's assistance.
 - (iv) If the party in a caucus does not have any objection thereto, then the mediator must convey to the other party, any proposal, attitude, indication or suggestion stemming from a caucus meeting.
- (f) The mediator must mediate only those disputes in which the mediator can be impartial with respect to all of the parties and the subject matter of the dispute.
- (g) At any time the mediator is of the opinion that any party to the mediation is unable to understand and participate fully in the proceedings due to mental impairment, emotional disturbance, intoxication, language barriers or other reasons, the mediator must –
- (i) limit the scope of the mediation, to a level consistent with the parties ability to participate;
 - (ii) make a recommendation that the party may obtain appropriate assistance in order to continue with the process, or
 - (iii) terminate, adjourn or postpone the mediation process.
- 3) The mediator may attempt to obtain information or documents, which are considered necessary, from a person who is not a party to the mediation, and such person should be requested to volunteer such information or documents to the mediator, who must record in the file all efforts to obtain the information or documents.

- (4) A mediation process must be completed within thirty (30) days from the date on which it commences. If this is not possible, then the process may be extended beyond the thirty (30) day period with the consent of the parties and the Tribunal.
- (5) If the parties cannot reach agreement through mediation, the matter must be referred to the Tribunal for a formal hearing and ruling in terms of section 13 (3), (4), (5), (6) and (12) of the Act.
- (6) The parties must not be coerced in any manner to reach agreement.
- (7) If the mediation results in an agreement it must be reduced to writing and signed by all the parties, including the mediator (Annexure C), and a copy of the signed agreement filed in the register.
- (8) Should the mediation be partly successful, the mediator will record, with the consent of the parties, those issues upon which an agreement has been reached. In respect of all other areas in which there is no agreement, refer these to the Tribunal for a hearing by completing a mediation certificate (Annexure C).
- (9) Before requesting the parties to sign the agreement the mediator must ensure that each party fully understands the agreement and is entering into it voluntarily.
- (10) Copies of the signed agreement must be given to each party.
- (11) The Tribunal may convert the signed mediation agreement into a ruling in terms of section 12(b) of the Act, which is deemed to be an order of a magistrate's court [s13(13)] in terms of the Magistrate's Court Act, 1944 (Act No 32 of 1944).
- (12) In the event the mediation has failed, the mediator being privy to the discussions through mediation shall not be part of the Tribunal hearing.

8. Hearing: Process and Procedure

- (1) The Tribunal is competent to hear a complaint and make such a ruling as it may consider just and fair in the circumstances, based on the provisions of the Act, facts of the case, relevant law and regulations:-
 - (a) where the dispute is of such a nature that it cannot be resolved through mediation; or
 - (b) where a mediator has issued a certificate to the effect that the parties are unable to resolve the dispute through mediation;

- (2) Summoning of Parties to a Hearing
 - (a) The Tribunal through its staff members shall notify parties of the date, time and place of the hearing at least ten days prior to the hearing date.

 - (b) The staff of the Tribunal shall issue a summons (Annexure D) to be served upon the parties to the dispute, which summons will be served in terms of subregulation 8(1)(m).

- (3) Hearing Proceedings
 - (a) At least three Tribunal members shall preside at any hearing, one of whom shall be the chairperson or deputy chairperson, or another member appointed by the members present, to chair the proceedings;
 - (b) All hearings will be held in public, unless any of the parties successfully applies for a hearing to be held in camera;
 - (c) The Tribunal may call upon and administer an oath to, or accept an affirmation from, any person present at the hearing or who has been summoned to appear before the Tribunal;
 - (d) Parties will be informed of their rights, the procedure to be followed by the Tribunal, the effect of its rulings and the consequences of contravention thereof;
 - (e) Parties will be afforded the opportunity of stating their case, to cross examine, call witnesses and produce any relevant book, document, or object.

- (f) The rules of evidence will be observed and the members may, should the need arise, ask questions of the parties at any stage of the hearing proceedings;
- (4) Process to be followed by parties before a hearing-
- (a) If a Tribunal has determined that a complaint does relate to a dispute in respect of a matter which may constitute an unfair practice, it will notify the respondent in writing, providing him or her the opportunity to examine the file and, if necessary, to provide the Tribunal with a written response thereto and / or lodge a counter claim within 21 days of receipt of the Tribunal's notification and the Tribunal shall issue a hearing certificate: (Annexure E)
- (b) Parties will exchange all relevant documents with each other, at least five days before the hearing;
- (c) Parties will inform each other and provide details of witnesses they intend to use, at least five days before the hearing;
- (d) Parties may meet before the hearing in an attempt to resolve the dispute, clarify issues or to agree on the exact nature of the complaints to be adjudicated.
- (5) General responsibilities of members-
- (a) Members in dealing with matters before the Tribunal, shall act and conduct themselves at all times in a manner that promotes public confidence in the integrity and impartiality of the Tribunal;
- (b) Members shall be patient, dignified and courteous to the parties, representatives, witnesses and others before the Tribunal and shall require similar conduct of others;
- (c) Members shall accord to every party to a proceeding, or to that party's representative, the right to be heard according to law.

1. Definitions

In these regulations, any word or expression to which a meaning has been assigned to it in the Rental Housing Act, 1999 (Act No. 50 of 1999), as amended, shall have the meaning so assigned to it and, unless the context indicates otherwise –

"services" means the provision of water, electricity, gas services and refuse removal;

"the Act" means the Rental Housing Act;

"Tribunal" means the Rental Housing Tribunal established in terms of section 7 of the Act, and

"Unfair practice" means a failure to comply with these regulations constitutes an unfair practice contemplated in the definition thereof in section 1 of the Act.

2. Disclosure

- (a) Parties to a lease agreement (oral or written) must provide their full details in respect of payments, their names as they appears in the Identity Document, address for service of documents, telephone numbers and other contact details.
- (b) Where a representative negotiates and concludes a lease, details required in (a) above must be provided by the representative.

3. Leases

- (a) The rights and duties of a landlord and a tenant set out in these regulations apply to a landlord and a tenant even if the lease agreement between them has not been reduced to writing.
- (b) A landlord and a tenant may include in a lease agreement terms and conditions not prohibited by these regulations, the Act or any other law, including rent, term of the lease, and other provisions governing the rights and obligations of the parties.
- (c) A lease agreement must not include any provision which –

- (i) imposes a penalty for late payment of rent whether or not the penalty takes the form of administrative charge or any other form other than interest;
- (ii) excludes liability of either party for failing to comply with a duty under the lease, these regulations, the Act or any other law;
- (iii) limits or prevents either party from using the normal rights of recourse against the other because of the other's failure to comply with any duty under the lease, these regulations, the Act or any other law, unless provided for in these regulations, the Act or any other law; or
- (iv) precludes either party from being a member of a landlords' or tenants' association.

4. Effect of unsigned or undelivered lease agreement

- (a) If a landlord does not sign and deliver a written lease agreement, signed and delivered to the landlord by a tenant, acceptance of rent by landlord gives the lease agreement the same effect as if it had been signed and delivered by the landlord.
- (b) If a tenant does not sign and deliver a written lease agreement, signed and delivered to the tenant by the landlord, acceptance of possession of the dwelling and payment of rent gives the lease agreement the same effect as if it had been signed and delivered by the tenant.

5. Rentals

- (a) A tenant must pay rental due to the landlord under the lease.

- (b) Rent is payable without demand or notice at the time and place agreed upon and unless a tenant is otherwise notified in writing, rent is payable at the dwelling on the first day of each month.
- (c) A landlord must give a tenant at least 2 (two) months written notice of an intention to increase rental.

6. Conditions, Obligations and Maintenance

(1) A landlord must-

- (a) if the lease has been reduced to writing, stamp the lease and furnish the tenant with a copy thereof within 21 (twenty one) days.
- (b) let a dwelling which at the commencement of the lease is in a condition -
 - (i) that is reasonably fit for human habitation; and
 - (ii) which does not contravene the provisions of these regulations, the Act or any other law;
- (c) keep and maintain the dwelling in accordance with these regulations, the Act or any other law;
- (d) take reasonable steps to ensure that the tenant enjoys undisturbed use of the dwelling and in a multi-tenanted building and that no tenant or other person conducts any activity within a dwelling which is expressly prohibited under these regulations, the Act or any other law, which shall include disturbance of the peace of the area;
- (e) formulate a set of house rules which must also take into consideration the interest of the neighbourhood with particular emphasis on preserving the peace;

- (f) maintain the common property, if any, in good order and repair;
- (g) maintain the outside of the dwelling, including the walls and roof in good order and repair;
- (h) maintain electrical, plumbing, sanitary, heating, ventilation, air conditioning systems and elevator system in good order and repair
- (l) repair any damage to the dwelling or common area caused by fair wear and tear;
- (j) provide and maintain appropriate container and places for the removal of ashes, garbage, rubbish, and other waste incidental to the dwelling and arrange for its removal;
- (k) provide all services agreed to in the lease;
- (l) effect repairs which a landlord is responsible for under the lease and as identified during inspections by the landlord or on receipt of a notice from a tenant to do such repairs, but a landlord is not liable for repairs if a tenant, his or her household members or visitors brought about the state of disrepair; and
- (m) effect repairs for which a landlord is responsible for, under the lease and as identified during inspections by the landlord or on receipt of a written notice from the tenant to do such repairs, within fourteen (14) days or such further periods as may be agreed to between the landlord and tenant.

(2) A tenant must-

- (a) use the dwelling in a proper manner and for the purpose for which it is let, and in a manner which does not contravene these regulations, the Act or any other law;
- (b) dispose from the dwelling all ashes, garbage, rubbish, and other waste in a reasonable clean and safe manner;
- (c) maintain the dwelling in a clean, tidy and safe state of repair;
- (d) use, in a reasonable manner, all electrical, plumbing, sanitary, heating, ventilating, air-conditioning, and other facilities and appliances including elevators on the premises;
- (e) refrain from intentionally or negligently damaging, defacing, impairing, or removing any part of the dwelling or common property or knowingly permitting any person to do so, who is on the premises with the tenant's permission or allowed access to the premises by the tenant and the tenant is liable for the repair of such damage, fair wear and tear excluded, at the tenant's own cost;
- (f) return the dwelling in the same condition as the tenant received it, fair wear and tear excluded;
- (g) during the period of lease be liable to maintain, replace or repair electrical globes, fittings and switches and also be liable for the maintenance, repair or making good all water-borne taps, stoves, locks, handles, and windows where such damage has not been due to natural causes;
- (h) maintain the garden, if any, and keep the same in a neat and tidy condition;

- (i) comply with the house-rules, which are enforceable pursuant to these regulations and must respect the peace of the area; and
- (j) maintain the swimming pool, including but not limited to, all pumps, hoses and accessories, in good order and repair, subject to fair wear and tear;

7. Reconstruction, refurbishment, conversion or demolition

- (1) A landlord may only-
 - (a) request a tenant to vacate the dwelling if any repairs, conversions or refurbishment are necessary and cannot be properly done while the tenant remains in occupation;
 - (b) cancel the lease and repossess the dwellings, without being liable for damages in terms of these lease, these regulations, the Act or any other law, in circumstances where the dwelling is in an uninhabitable condition,
- (2) In the circumstances referred to in paragraph (a) of sub regulation (1), the landlord must-
 - (a) allow the tenant remission of rental for the period during which the tenant is not in occupation;
 - (b) effect the repairs, conversion or refurbishment within a reasonable time so as to cause the tenant as little inconvenience as possible; and
 - (c) ensure that the tenant is able to return to the dwelling as soon as possible after the completion of the repairs; conversion or refurbishment.
- (3) where a landlord is required to make necessary repairs, conversions or refurbishment only to a part of the dwelling and a tenant continues to occupy the remaining part, a tenant is entitled to a remission in rental, the amount of which is proportionate to actual from which a tenant has been deprived.

- (4) if a tenant, having been requested to vacate the dwelling, does not do so, a tenant has no claim against the landlord for injuries suffered while the dwelling is being repaired, converted or refurbished.

8. Eviction and Changing of Locks

- (a) A tenant must not be evicted from the dwelling without an order of court.
- (b) A tenant evicted from the whole or part of the dwelling by a third person has, subject to the common law, a claim for damages against the landlord.
- (c) A landlord or tenant must not change locks or doors providing access to the dwelling-
- (i) unless it is necessary to replace the locks or doors due to fair wear and tear or other reasonable causes
 - (ii) without reasonable notice of the proposed change to the other; and
 - (iii) unless duplicate keys are provided to the other immediately upon such change of locks.
- (d) If a tenant breaches the lease and in order to deprive the tenant access to a dwelling, the landlord must-
- (i) give the tenant seven (7) days notice in which to remedy the breach, unless the tenant is in default of rental payment and remains in default for a period of seven (7) days of due date, then such notice will be dispensed with; and
 - (ii) obtain a valid court order to evict the tenant.

9. Entry

- (1) A landlord may only enter a dwelling on reasonable notice to a tenant-
 - (a) to inspect the dwelling;
 - (b) to make repairs to the dwelling;
 - (c) to show the dwelling to a prospective tenant, purchaser, mortgagee or its agents;
 - (d) to inspect the dwelling for damages as referred to in section 5(3) (e) (f) of the Act or upon notification by the landlord or the tenant of the intention to terminate the lease;
 - (e) if the dwelling appears to be abandoned by the tenant; or
 - (f) pursuant to an order of court.
- (2) A tenant must allow a landlord to enter a dwelling for the purposes set out under sub regulation (1), but such entry must be carried out at reasonable time.

10. House Rules

- (1) A landlord must make house rules in relation to the control, management, administration, use and enjoyment of the dwelling.
- (2) A house rule is enforceable against a tenant only if-
 - (a) its purpose is to-

- (i) promote the convenience, safety, health, or welfare of the tenant in the premises and that of the neighbours;
 - (ii) preserve the landlord's property from abuse; or
 - (iii) make a fair distribution of services and facilities available to the tenant.
- (b) it is reasonably related to the purpose for which it is adopted;
- (c) it applies to all tenants in the premises in a fair manner
- (d) it is sufficiently explicit in its prohibition, direction, or limitation on the tenant's conduct and fairly informs the tenant of what is expected;
- (e) it is not for the purpose of evading the obligations of the landlord; and
- (f) the tenant has notice of the house rule at the time the tenant enters into the lease agreement.

11. Receipts

- (1) A landlord must furnish a tenant with a written receipt for all payments made by the tenant to the landlord, in the manner prescribed in section 5(3)(a) and (b) of the Act.
- (2) A landlord must furnish a receipt even where payments are made into his / her banking account and where a deposit slip exists as proof of payment or where any other method of payment is used as agreed upon by the tenant and landlord.

12. Municipal Services

- (1) A landlord who is obliged by law or in terms of the express or implied terms of the lease to provide water, electricity or gas services to a tenant, must-
- (a) provide such services;
 - (b) not cause the non-supply or interrupted supply of services to a dwelling without a court order, except –
 - (i) in an emergency; or-
 - (ii) after reasonable notice to the tenant to do maintenance, repairs or renovations, but the services must be resumed as soon as reasonably possible after such emergency, maintenance, repairs or renovations;
 - (c) ensure that the tenant is not exposed to the risk of interruption or loss of service provider when such a payment become due, if the tenant has made payment to the landlord in respect of the amounts due for such services;
 - (d) charge the tenant the exact amount for services consumed in the dwelling if such dwelling is separately metered; and
 - (e) comply with any law or obligation regarding the amount to be charged to the tenant for services, if any dwelling is not separately metered for services;
 - (f) in a multi-tenanted building not recover collectively, from the tenants for services provided in excess of the amounts totally charged by the utility service provider and the landlord; or

(g) must without requesting payment of any fee be obliged to provide the tenant with copies of the account of the aforesaid service provider and copies of accounts rendered to the tenants with regard to such services;

(2) If a dwelling is separately metered for services and payment must be made directly to a landlord, the landlord must provide a tenant with a monthly statement which must contain the following information-

(a) the names of both the landlord and the tenant, as well as the physical address of the dwelling;

(b) the name, address and telephone number of each service provider;

(c) the previous and current month's meter readings;

(d) the actual consumption for each service and amounts charged therefore;

(e) the total payment due;

(f) the date of the next meter reading for each service; and

(f) the date of the next meter reading for each service; and

(g) the amount of any arrears.

(g) the amount of any arrears.

13. General provisions

13. General provisions

(1) A landlord must not-

(1) A landlord must not-

(a) intimidate, discriminate or retaliate against a tenant for exercising any right under these regulations, the Act or any other law;

(b) preclude the tenant from establishing or being a member of any tenants committee or any similar body;

- (c) make a false representation regarding the official nature of any document or refuse to accept any notice lawfully presented or sent by the tenant;
 - (d) engage in oppressive or unreasonable conduct;
 - (e) fail to comply with the Tribunal complaint procedures or any agreement concluded with the Tribunal or with the tenant through the Tribunal's complaint procedures;
 - (f) conduct any activity which unreasonably interferes with or limits the rights of the tenant or which is expressly prohibited under the lease, these regulations, the Act or any other law; and
 - (g) induce a person to waive that person's rights under these regulations, the Act or any other law, or to withdraw from proceedings before the Tribunal.
- (2) A tenant must not-
- (a) cede the tenant's rights, assign the tenant's obligations or sublet the dwelling or any other part thereof to any other person without the written consent of the landlord, which in the case of subletting must not be unreasonably withheld;
 - (b) allow more than the maximum number of persons specified by the landlord to reside in the dwelling;
 - (c) intimidate, discriminate or retaliate against the landlord for exercising any right under these regulations, the Act or any other law;

NOTICE 352 OF 2008

DEPARTMENT OF WATER AFFAIRS AND FORESTRY

RESTRICTIONS ON THE USE OF WATER FOR ALL PURPOSES EXCEPT THOSE CONTAINED IN SCHEDULE 1 TO THE NATIONAL WATER ACT, 1998, (ACT NO 36 OF 1998) FROM THE MAGALIES RIVER

By virtue of the powers vested in me under section 63 read together with section 72 of the National Water Act, 1998, I, Moshibudi Rampedi, in my capacity as acting Director General of the Department of Water Affairs and Forestry:

- (a) Believe that a water shortage exists in the Magalies River Water Resource.
- (b) Direct in terms of Item 6(1)(i) of Schedule 3 of the National Water Act that, as from the date of publication of this Notice, the taking of water for all purposes except those permitted in schedule 1 of the National Water Act from the Magalies River downstream of Maloney's Eye be limited as follows:

From the date of this notice until 15 March 2008 the taking of water must be reduced by 50% of the quantity allocated to each property in Government Notice No 1016 published in Government Gazette No 16535 on 10 July 1995.

From 16 March to 15 October 2008 the limitation is as follows:

- (i) In the event that the volume of water issuing from Maloney's Eye is less than 93 litres per second the taking of water is prohibited;
- (ii) In the event that the volume is more than 93 litres per second but less than 186 litres per second the taking of water must be reduced by 75% of the quantity allocated to each property in Government Notice No 1016 published in Government Gazette 16535 on 10 July 1995;
- (iii) If the volume is more than 186 litres per second but less than 279 litres per second the taking of water must be reduced by 50% of the allocated quantity;
- (iv) If the volume is more than 279 litres per second but less than 372 litres per second the taking of water must be reduced by 25% of the allocated quantity.

From 15 October 2008 to 15 March 2009 the limitation set out in this notice on the taking of water is suspended and become effective as set out in (l) to (iv) above again on 16 March 2009.

- (c) Direct in terms of Item 6(1)(iv) of Schedule 3 to the National Water Act, that all persons using water from the Magalies River, are required to provide the following information to the Department of Water Affairs and Forestry, within 21 days of the date of publication of this notice, as being necessarily ancillary to the introduction of appropriate water conservation measures:
- (i) The identity, ownership and management of the property on which the use is made;
 - (ii) A description of the waterworks and irrigation installation(s) on the property;
 - (iii) The volume of water used in the twelve months prior to this directive, if known, and the basis of such use;
 - (iv) contact details of persons to permit access to the property for the purpose of monitoring and controlling the use of water; and
 - (v) An e-mail or fax number at which notifications from Department Water Affairs and Forestry may be received.
- (d) Direct that the volume of water emitting from Maloney's Eye will be measured with the purpose-built flow gauging structure, reference A2H10, equipped with instrumentation to continuously record time and water levels belonging to the Department of Water Affairs and Forestry and presently installed at Maloney's Eye, and that the average emission of Maloney's Eye shall be calculated over a period of three months. The average emission so calculated will be used in setting the limitation for the next three months.
- (e) This notice overrides any other or previous authorization issued by the Department relating to these areas.

Signed M RAMPEDI

NOTICE 353 OF 2008DEPARTMENT OF WATER AFFAIRS AND FORESTRY*RESTRICTIONS ON THE TAKING OF WATER FOR ALL PURPOSES EXCEPT THOSE CONTAINED IN SCHEDULE 1 TO THE NATIONAL WATER ACT, 1998, FROM THE STEENKOPPIES DOLOMITIC COMPARTMENT (QUARTERNARY DRAINAGE REGION A21D, A21F AND C23E)

By virtue of the powers vested in me under section 63 read together with section 72 of the National Water Act, 1998, I, Moshibudi Rampedi, in my capacity as acting Director General of the Department of Water Affairs and Forestry:

- (a) Believe that a water shortage exists in the Steenkoppies Dolomitic Compartment forming part of the Magalies River Water Resource.
- (b) Direct in terms of Item 6(1)(ii) of Schedule 3 of the National Water Act that, as from the date of publication of this Notice, the taking of water by the users situated on the properties identified in Annexure A hereto for all purposes except those contained in schedule 1 to the National Water Act from the Steenkoppies Dolomitic Compartment be limited as follows:

(i) From the date of this notice until 30 April 2008 the taking of water may only take place from 18:00 on Mondays to 6:00 on Tuesdays, from 18:00 on Wednesdays to 6:00 on Thursdays and from 18:00 on Fridays to 6:00 on Saturdays.

From 1 May 2008 until this notice is amended or repealed:

- (i) In the event that the volume of water issuing from Maloney's Eye is less than 93 litres per second the taking of water is prohibited;
- (ii) In the event that the volume is more than 93 litres per second but less than 186 litres per second the taking of water may only take place from 18:00 on Wednesdays to 06:00 on Thursdays;
- (iii) If the volume is more than 186 per second but less than 279 litres per second the taking of water may only take place from 18:00 on Mondays to 06:00 on Tuesdays, from 18:00 on Tuesdays to 06:00 on Wednesdays and from 18:00 on Thursdays to 06:00 on Fridays;
- (iv) If the volume is more than 279 litres per second but less than 372 litres per second the taking of water and irrigation may only take place from 18:00 on Mondays to 06:00 on Tuesdays, from 18:00 on Tuesdays to 06:00 on Wednesdays, from 18:00 on Wednesdays to 06:00 on Thursdays and from 18:00 on Thursdays to 06:00 on Fridays.

- (c) Direct in terms of Item 6(1)(iv) of Schedule 3 to the National Water Act, that all persons using water from the Steenkoppies Dolomitic Compartment are required to provide the following information to the Department of Water Affairs and Forestry, within 21 days of the date of publication of this notice, as being necessarily ancillary to the introduction of appropriate water conservation measures:
- (i) the identity, ownership and management of the property on which the use is made;
 - (ii) a description of the waterworks and irrigation installation(s) on the property;
 - (iii) the volume of water used in the twelve months prior to this directive, if known, and the basis of such use;
 - (iv) contact details of persons to permit access to the property for the purpose of monitoring and controlling the use of water; and
 - (v) an e-mail address or fax number at which notifications from Department Water Affairs and Forestry may be received.
- (d) Direct that the volume of water emitting from Maloney's Eye will be measured with the purpose-built flow gauging structure, reference A2H10, equipped with instrumentation to continuously record time and water levels belonging to the Department of Water Affairs and Forestry presently installed at Maloney's Eye, and that the average emission of Maloney's Eye shall be calculated over a period of three months. The average emission so calculated will be used in setting the limitation for the next three months.
- (e) This notice overrides any other or previous authorization issued by the Department relating to these areas.
