The International Trade Administration Commission (herein after referred to as ITAC or the Commission) has received the following applications concerning the Customs Tariff. Any objection to or comments on this representations should be submitted to the Chief Commissioner, ITAC, Private Bag X753, Pretoria, 0001, within six weeks of the date of this notice. CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

The submission of confidential information to the Commission in connection with customs tariff applications is governed by section 3 of the Tariff Investigations Regulations, which regulations can be found on ITAC's website at <http://www.itac.org.za/documents/R.397.pdf>.

These regulations require that if any information is considered to be confidential, then a non-confidential version of the information must be submitted, simultaneously with the confidential version. In submitting a non-confidential version the regulations are strictly applicable and require parties to indicate:

- Each instance where confidential information has been omitted and the reasons for confidentiality;*
- A summary of the confidential information which permits other interested parties a reasonable understanding of the substance of the confidential information; and*

3. by the substitution of Rule 2.(c) of SECTION A: INTRODUCTION with the following rule:

(c) Consulting the Executive Director[, the Executive Committee] or the Panel

The Panel has appointed an Executive Director[, and an Executive Committee [see sections 440B(11) and (12) of the Act]. A] and a Deputy Executive Director [will be appointed] in terms of section 440B(11) and (13) of the Act.

When there is any doubt as to whether a proposed course of conduct is in accordance with the General Principles or the Rules, parties or their advisers may consult the Executive Director in advance. In this way, the parties can obtain clarification of the basis on which they can properly proceed on the facts presented and so avoid taking action which might, in the event, be a breach of the Code.

Both principals and their advisers are encouraged to make full use of this service.

A ruling on the application or interpretation of the Code is generally given in the first place by the Executive Director on the basis of hearing the applicant alone. In some cases, however, it may not be possible for a ruling to be given unless the Executive Director is able to hear the views of other parties. The requirements of confidentiality shall be respected unless the circumstances require otherwise.

The Executive Director may refer a matter to the [Executive Committee or to the] Panel for decision without himself giving a ruling when he considers that there is an unusual, important or difficult point at issue. He may make such reference mero motu or on the application of any party.

The Panel expects prompt co-operation from those to whom inquiries are directed so that decisions may be both properly informed and given as speedily as possible.

4. by the substitution of Rule 2.(d) of SECTION A: INTRODUCTION with the following rule:

(d) Appeals

If a party or his adviser wishes to contest a ruling of the Executive Director, he may take the matter on appeal to the [Executive Committee] Panel, a quorum for which is [~~three~~] five members[, which committee can be convened at short notice]. The same right is given to an aggrieved holder of relevant securities, subject to certain safeguards designed to discourage frivolous or vexatious appeals. [A similar right of appeal exists against rulings of the Executive Committee, such further appeal being to the panel. In the case of appeals to the Panel, the quorum is five members.]

Appeals shall be noted within three business days of notification of the ruling against which the appeal is directed, provided that the Executive Director [or the Executive Committee, as the case may be,] may direct that the appeal be noted within a shorter period if the circumstances so require, or within a longer period if justified. An appeal from the Executive Director[, or from the Executive Committee, as the case may be,] involves a rehearing, save to the extent that the party or parties involved may otherwise agree.

5. by the substitution of Rule 2.(e) of SECTION A: INTRODUCTION with the following Rule:

(e) Procedure before the Panel

At hearings by the Executive Director and in appeals the case is normally presented in person by the parties or their advisers. Formal legal representation will not normally be permitted. Normally, each party shall set out its case briefly in writing beforehand. The parties are permitted to call such witnesses as may give relevant and material evidence. There are no rules of evidence other than those requisite to ensure fairness. All rulings by the Executive Director[, Executive Committee] or the Panel shall be confirmed in writing.

In general parties with a direct interest in the hearing are entitled to be present throughout the hearing and to see all papers submitted. However, a party may wish to present evidence which is of a confidential commercial nature. In such cases, if such course is considered justified, the evidence in question may be received in the absence of some, or all, of the other parties involved. Representations by holders of relevant securities or other interested parties may be made in writing.

Proceedings are informal and private unless otherwise directed by the Executive Director, or the Chairman of the body hearing the matter, as the case may be. The Executive Director[, Executive Committee] or Panel, as the case may be, may himself or itself call any such evidence where it deems that course to be desirable. A recording may be taken, but it will not necessarily be transcribed or retained.

It is the panel's policy in the case of important decisions to publish its conclusions and the reasons for them. The Panel's decisions will be announced to the parties as soon as possible.
