GOLD FIELDS MEDICAL SCHEME

SECTION 63 EXPOSITION ON THE INTENTION TO USE THE SPECIAL EMPLOYER RESERVE TO PURCHASE ANNUITIES FOR THE BENEFICIARIES OF THE RESERVE

This exposition is provided in terms of section 63 of the Medical Schemes Act (No. 131 of 1998 as amended) to inform the members and other stakeholders of the Gold Fields Medical Scheme of the intention to use the Employers In-Scheme Contribution Subsidy Reserve (Employer Reserve) to purchase annuities for the beneficiaries of the Reserve.

During the late nineteen nineties, the then associated employers deposited monies into Gold Fields Medical Scheme's predecessors (Aumed and Medisense Medical Schemes) to subsidise the contributions of certain pensioner members of the two schemes. This money has always been held in a special "Employer Reserve" on the Scheme from which the subsidies are paid on a monthly basis. As at 31 December 2007, the employer Reserve amounted to R2.85 million, or 2.4% of the Scheme's total reserves of R120,28 million.

In August 2005, the Council for Medical Schemes instructed all medical schemes that in future all reserves must be used for the collective benefit of all members and that any "dedicated" reserves should be transferred out of the schemes to meet the obligations for which they were created.

The Scheme recently received approval from the Council for Medical Schemes to use the Employer Reserve to purchase annuities for those pensioner members who are entitled to the subsidy. The 36 affected members have been informed of the proposed process and provided with the details of how it will affect them personally. Any monies held in the Employer Reserve in excess of the insurance premiums required to purchase the annuities will be returned to the employers.

The members and stakeholders of the Scheme are also hereby informed that similar processes were followed in 2004 and 2005 when a number of the pensioner members, who were entitled to the subsidy from the Employer Reserve, resigned from the Scheme.
