INDEPENDENT COMMUNICATIONS AUTHORITY OF SOUTH AFRICA

NO. 289

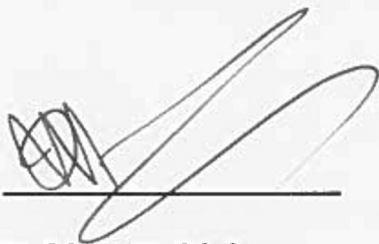

01 MARCH 2019

INDEPENDENT COMMUNICATIONS AUTHORITY OF SOUTH AFRICA*SHORT CODE "116" FOR CHILD HELPLINE SERVICES

1. The Independent Communications Authority of South Africa ("the Authority") hereby gives notice of its intention to amend regulation 17 of the Numbering Plan Regulations, 2016 published in Government Gazette 39861 ("the Regulations") in order to harmonize the short code "116" for child helpline services.
2. The third (3rd) Communications Regulatory Association of Southern Africa's ("CRASA") Annual General Meeting ("AGM") held 24th - 28th March 2014 in Lesotho, took the resolution that member states were to implement the reservation and assignment of the 3-digit code '116' for Childline services. The implementation of the above resolution was to give effect to the harmonisation of numbers assigned for Child Helpline Services among the SADC member states.
3. The above resolution was tabled for the consideration by the Honourable Ministers responsible for Postal services, Telecommunications and Information and Communications Technologies ("ICT") through the Southern African Development Community ("SADC") Secretariat, and included the following resolution pertaining to the use of the code "116":
 - (a) The SADC Member States that have existing Child Helpline services operating on a variety of telephone numbers consider introducing 116 number in parallel to the other numbers being used; and
 - (b) The SADC Member States to consider providing free of charge communication services to persons calling Child Helpline services to assist a child in distress.

4. In terms of section 4(3)(i) of the Independent Communications Authority of South Africa Act No 13 of 2000, the Authority must implement the decisions adopted by the United Nations Specialised Agencies and any other bodies to which the Republic is a party.
5. In line with the above, the Authority proposes amendments to regulation 17 of the Regulations to give effect to the above resolution. Interested parties are hereby invited to submit representations on the abovementioned amendments as reflected in the schedule attached.
6. Written representations must be submitted to the Authority within thirty (30) working days from the date of publication of this notice by email to the following email address:

WARNING!!!

To all suppliers and potential suppliers of goods to the Government Printing Works

The Government Printing Works would like to warn members of the public against an organised syndicate(s) scamming unsuspecting members of the public and claiming to act on behalf of the Government Printing Works.

One of the ways in which the syndicate operates is by requesting quotations for various goods and services on a quotation form with the logo of the Government Printing Works. Once the official order is placed the syndicate requesting upfront payment before delivery will take place. Once the upfront payment is done the syndicate do not deliver the goods and service provider then expect payment from Government Printing Works.

Government Printing Works condemns such illegal activities and encourages service providers to confirm the legitimacy of purchase orders with GPW SCM, prior to processing and delivery of goods.
