

housing is able to contribute to widening the range of housing options available to the poor;

"Transferee" means the social housing institution which takes transfer, or is intended to take transfer, of social housing stock or rights in accordance with rules 3 or 4;

"Transferor" means the transferor, or intended transferor, of social housing stock or rights in terms of rules 3 or 4;

A social housing institution "under administration" means a social housing institution which has been placed under administration by a high court as contemplated in section 12(9) of the Act.