

LOW SENSITIVITY RATING - No negative impacts on the defence installation are expected in low sensitivity areas. It is unlikely for further assessment and mitigation measures to be required.	No requirement identified.
------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	----------------------------